REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 13 and 19 have been amended.
2. Claims 1-20 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed towards a method and apparatus for encrypting electronic messages composed by a sender using abbreviated address books for delivery over a mail system to a recipient who holds a digital certificate. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features "placing the header and the plaintext mail message in an outbox, requesting the digital certificate from the mail system when the sender is online, in response to a flag, and encrypting the plaintext mail message using the digital certificate".

The closest prior art Paladin System and RFC-822 discloses an offline system for composing email using an encryption field to identify that the associated message is encrypted, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious. The closest prior art Clark (US Patent No. 5,815,577) discloses a method and apparatus for securely encrypting data in conjunction with a personal computer either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious. The closest prior art Floyd et al. (Pub No. 2002/0161709) discloses a server-side commerce for deliver-then-pay content delivery, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious. The closest prior art Gressel et al. (US Patent No. 6,609,114) discloses a system for safe collection of payment including electronic payment receipt generators having electronic purses, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

5. Therefore, claims 1,7,13, and 19, and the respective dependent claims 2-6,8-12,14-18 and 20 are in condition for allowance.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
